Licence Terms, version 2

1. Grant

- 1.1 Glasswork Audio Ltd ("Glasswork") grants the Licensee a non-exclusive, worldwide licence to use the Licensed Work ("the Work") in accordance with these terms.
- 1.2 This licence is personal to the Licensee and may not be transferred or sublicensed.

2. The Licensed Work

- 2.1 The Work is the sound recording and underlying composition named on this certificate, in the version supplied at the time of purchase.

3. Term

- 3.1 This licence is perpetual for any video published while the licence is in force, and cannot be withdrawn except for a material breach of these terms.

4. Permitted use

- 4.1 Standard licence permits use of the Work as background music in video content, including monetised video on social platforms, on channels operated by the Licensee.
- 4.2 The Work may be edited for length and mixed with other audio, provided it is not materially altered or remixed as a new work.

5. Restrictions

- 5.1 The Licensee may not distribute the Work as a standalone audio file, register the Work with any content identification system, or use the Work in broadcast television or paid advertising.

6. Governing terms

- 6.1 This licence is governed by the Licence Terms in force on the date of purchase. Later changes to the Licence Terms do not reduce the rights granted in this certificate.

7. Content identification claims

- 7.1 If a use permitted by this licence receives a content identification claim, contact licensing@glassworkaudio.example and quote the certificate number above. We will help arrange for the claim to be released.

Issued by Glasswork Audio Ltd, Licensing Team

Please keep this certificate as proof of your licence. It may be requested if your use of the Work is queried.
